

Daily Article (Bharath's Reading list) - Answers and Explanations 09.06.2023

Article link : <https://bit.ly/3qDmTiE> (The revolt of the Christian home-schoolers)

1. For Aaron and Christina, sending their daughter Aimee to elementary school "was nothing less than a revolt" as:

- A. Both of them had grown up in the most powerful and ideologically committed faction of the modern home-schooling movement
- B. They had both been raised to believe that public schools were government indoctrination camps devoted to the subversion of Christian families
- C. Both of them had rarely set foot inside a school building themselves
- D. All the above

Explanation : D

All given reasons are mentioned in the article.

2. The home-schooling movement led by conservative Christians, according to the article, believe in all the following except:

- A. a conscious rejection of contemporary ideas about biology, history, gender equality and the role of religion in American government
- B. binding children to fundamentalist beliefs using home-schooling and corporal punishment as tools
- C. advocating exposure to people with different experiences and points of view
- D. raising a Joshua generation that would seek the political power and cultural influence to reshape America according to biblical principles

Explanation: C

Note the line, "Among conservative Christians, home schooling became a tool for binding children to fundamentalist beliefs they felt were threatened by exposure to other points of view"

3. Which of the following idioms is closest in meaning to the idiom 'flip the script' ?

- A. Turn the tables on
- B. Turn the page
- C. Turn the tide
- D. Do a good turn

Explanation: A

Flip the script = reverse or change the story completely. This is similar to 'turn the tables on' someone.